

The Children's' Hunger By: Amanda Beeson, 2011

Do you hear the children cry

In the middle of the night

Begging for food,

Begging for life?

Do you feel their pain

As hunger turns them insane

Tormenting their bodies,

Leaving them maimed?

Do you see the tears

As the children slowly disappears?

The tears stagger down their faces

As they fade with the years...

Did you turn your head

To avoid seeing the dead?

Or did you watch in indifference

the little children on their deathbed?

Will you say their name

To prevent further pain?

Will you cease the cry

And stop Hunger's reign?

I will
